

QUIETLY WONDERFUL WHIMSICAL ART

Duple Minor
(double progression)

- A1: First couple slow cast to 2nd place, face up, 1M gates 1W half way*. First couple is facing down; 1s box the gnat.*
- A2: First couple dance up through the second couple above, cast to 2nd place. Dance right hands across with the couple below.
- B1: First corners (1M with the 2W below) set advancing, turn single to place. Second corners set advancing, turn single to place, while first corners dance half round the set CW, to finish in each other's place.
- B2: First corners change places (R); all change places (R) with partner. Join hands in a ring, balance in and out twice, moving 1 place CW each time (first couple has progressed another place).

There is a new first couple ready to start at the top of the set.

* see Glossary

Music: Suggested tune 'Mad Robin' or own tune 'Quietly Wonderful Whimsical Art'

Choreographer: E. Goossen

Dedication: To Art Quanbury as he celebrates his 65th birthday this year. Art is a quiet man who enjoys life. He is creative, dedicated, caring, fun-loving and whimsical.