

Mary's Garden

as of February 2023

Choreography by E. Goossen

Duple Minor

- A1: Second corners forward a double and back a double and back, cast off/up* one place dance across the set and into each other's place while first corners (on bars 5 – 8) just pass each other by the left and loop right (following your partner into your corner's place) (now progressed and improper).
- A2: Right hand star, left hand star.
- B1: All set, fall back a double, dance forward and cross, passing partner (R), to finish on own side.
- B2: First couple set, cross passing right, woman dances up, around the 2s above, while man dances down around the 2s below (pass right to the one you meet), finish in progressed places.

Music: Suggested recording: 'Wherever She Goes' on CD; Purcell Encore Disc 1

Dedication: to Mary Louise Chown. Telling stories has become a major part of Mary's life. This is also reflected in her expanding garden, which is colourful and varied; some parts cultivated and controlled, other parts wilder, letting nature take over.
