

The Masterful Potter

Choreography and Music by E. Goossen

Duple minor - Improper

Music: A Triple Glaze

- A1: All turn single right, (dancing diagonally into the centre and out), flow into a clockwise ring moving one place;
Dance back to back with partner (on the side of the dance).
- A2: All turn single left, (dancing diagonally into the centre and out), flow into a counter-clockwise ring moving one place (all in original places) left hands across once round.
- B1: First couple waltzes down the middle 2 steps, then turning toward each other (so they are facing up) continue down the middle for 2 steps; dance up the middle for 2 steps, separate to meet the 2s who have waltzed straight back for 2 steps, chased up the dance, waltzed forward 2 steps to meet 1s. Strong mirror turns with the second couple splitting the first couple. (First couple will continue down to meet the couple below, while second couple continue up to meet couple above)
- B2: First couple dance a mirror back to back with the new second couple. (first couple dance outside and second couple dance up the middle).
Cloverleaf turn single (first corners right, second corners left) and set (not advancing)

Dance devised and music composed by Elizabeth Goossen for Kathleen Estey as she celebrated her birthday in October, 2012

As revised in the spring 2015

Bars 7-8 of B1 originally worded: The 2W and 1M turn left hand while 1W and 2M turn right hand to progressed place.

Bars 5-6 of B2 originally worded: (women right, men left)